

Konstantin Freyer

Konstantin is a Berlin based, London educated and worldwide working Director of Photography. His „easy-to-work-with“ attitude plus his desire for stunning pictures have led him to work with a variety of well established directors and brands in various countries. A testament of this are the returning directors who want to work with Konstantin on a regular basis.

His technical skills include working with Russian Arm or Ultimate Arm, which he also operates himself as well as working with 3D rigs and high speed cameras.

On top of that, numerous festivals awarded his strong visual imagery with prizes for best Cinematography.
